TRAVEL ADVICE

IMMIGRATION ADVICE FOR GREEN CARD & VISA HOLDERS

STAY INFORMED

- It is always safest to travel outside of the United States for less than 6 months at a time.
- Generally, permanent residents are allowed to visit but not live in another country.
- Speak with a lawyer if you need to relocate abroad or be out of the country for more than six months.
- If you have any criminal record, especially since becoming a permanent resident, consult an attorney before leaving the United States. This also applies to visa holders.
- Always travel with a valid unexpired green card or a valid extension or temporary proof of permanent resident status, like a temporary I-551 stamp or I-797 receipt notice of action extending an expired card.
- At a port of entry to the United States (airport/land border), DO NOT sign a Form I-407 voluntarily giving up your permanent residence, even if an immigration officer pressures you. Ask to speak with an attorney and see a judge.

TRAVEL ADVICE

IMMIGRATION ADVICE FOR GREEN CARD & VISA HOLDERS

BEFORE YOU TRAVEL

CONSULT AN IMMIGRATION LAWYER BEFORE TRAVELING IF:

You have a criminal record - even for minor offenses/arrests - or a pending criminal case.

You have pending applications with USCIS or immigration court.

You have past immigration violations or challenging interactions with CBP.

You are a conditional resident.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

Travel with the contact information for your lawyer and your consulate on a separate paper.

Let your family know your travel plans and check in when you land.

If detained, try to contact a lawyer or have someone advocate for you. In some instances, having a Form G-28 signed by your immigration lawyer in hand can be helpful.
